CONSTITUTION OF THE ONTARIO AMATEUR WRESTLING OFFICIAL'S ASSOCIATION

ARTICLE 1

SECTION I NAME

The name of this organization shall be the Ontario Amateur Wrestling Official's Association (OAWOA). The association is an affiliated member of the Ontario Amateur Wrestling Association (OAWA) and the Canadian Association of Wrestling Officials (CAWO).

SECTION II DEFINITION

OAWOA is the amateur wrestling official's governing body in Ontario. The OAWOA consists of regional representative organizations dedicated to stimulating and perpetuating interest in officiating.

SECTION III CLARIFICATION

Where the pronoun "he" is utilized, it will be deemed "HE" OR "SHE".

ARTICLE II

SECTION I INSIGNIA

The association shall have such official insignia as the governing body may decide.

SECTION II COLOR

The colors of this association are red, white and blue.

ARTICLE III

SECTION I PURPOSE

This association is a non-profit organization dedicated to fostering the development of officials; regionally; nationally, and internationally, who desire to join in membership for the advancement of Olympic wrestling, and provide an opportunity to participate and contribute to that growth. These purposes are fulfilled through the aims and objectives.

CONSTITUTION OF THE ONTARIO AMATEUR WRESTLING OFFICIAL'S ASSOCIATION

SECTION II AIMS AND OBJECTIVES

- 1) To improve the skills and technical knowledge of officials in the OAWOA.
- 2) To stimulate interest in people so that they would act as officials for the OAWOA.
- 3) To unify and coordinate the efforts of all regions interested in promoting officiating and permit them to have a voice in the development of an association of wrestling officials in Ontario.
- 4) To create and maintain research projects that will benefit all parties interested in officiating by up-dating officiating techniques.
- 5) To provide a clearing house for the distribution of officiating literature, films, research materials and rules collected from sources both in Canada and abroad.
- 6) To give prompt attention to valid suggestions on how to improve wrestling officiating in Ontario.
- 7) To establish regional, provincial, national and UWW wrestling official's clinics.
- 8) To train and certify competent officials, and to recommend officials for assignments to WCL and OAWA.
- 9) To promote the officials as an integral part of the Ontario Wrestling Team scenario.

ARTICLE IV

SECTION I MEMBERSHIP (ACTIVE AND HONORARY)

Membership in the association shall include any individual official (on mat official or pairing master) who has successfully participated in an area up-grading clinic and who has been successfully rated by an assigned clinician, is a member in good standing with the OAWOA and has paid their dues.
